

How are the trains ---
---- going?

When I first tried the watercolour, I thought that that would be the answer, but then I found that a pen with a liquid which would spread like a diluted solution worked on some surfaces, but not this one so

That's good, Graeme

THE WHITTENBURY CHRONICLES

John Whittenbury has a series of annual visual diaries of things that go on in the Thursday morning Life Drawing group. The words come directly from the people portrayed, and they are typical utterances. John captures people's likenesses and idiosyncrasies. I have made John's words more politically correct but no less accurate.
