

Brighton Art Society

Peter Smales

Exhibiting Artist and Experienced Tutor

Thursday 28 September 2017, 10am – 3pm.

Summer-Aireys-Cliffs-Reflections

Peter is a highly regarded Melbourne based Impressionist painter.

He is sort after as a tutor, conducts workshops and demonstrates at various art societies.

Peter is trained in tonal realism, paints in oils, and specialises in coastal and rustic landscapes. His latest work will be exhibited at the Twenty Melbourne Painters Society 99th Annual Exhibition at Glen Eira City Council Art gallery from 22 August 2017 to 10 September 2017. He is currently represented by Jenny Pihan Fine Art Gallery.

To view his work and biographical details visit: petersmales.com.au

Landscape in Oil Workshop

Suitable for al skill levels.

This workshop will cover:

- Composition – the basic principles and strategies that can be applied to any painting subject.
- Oil colour mixing – using a simplified palette that requires six colours; warm and cool of the three primary colours and white.

Peter will demonstrate how any colour and tone value can be mixed using these six basic colours. Photographic references will be provided but you may also, bring your own.

Materials list will be emailed when your place has been confirmed. Boards, easels and tables provided at venue.

All Enquiries: Please contact Wendy: 0407 318 794

THIS PORTION MUST ACCOMPANY PAYMENT

Landscape Oil Painting Workshop with Peter Smales

Thursday 28 September 2017, 10am – 3pm

Venue 1st Floor, Brighton Cultural Centre, Wilson Street, Brighton

Name.

Address.

Phone Email.....

Please find enclosed: $..... ($75 Brighton Art Society Members)

$.....($85 Visitors)

Make cheque payable to: Brighton Art Society Inc.

Post to: WORKSHOPS, Brighton Art Society,

PO BOX 2234 BRIGHTON NTH 3186